ALVAN D. MEYER

MY DREAM GIRL.
Curling locks of soft brown hair,
Wistful eyes of blue,
Cheeks like the heart of a half-blown rose
Cupid-bow lips, that's you!

The sweetest trust of a wee child's heart,
A soul so pure and true,
A spirit clothed in a robe of love—
A bit of Heaven, that's you!

Echoes of tenderness sent from above,
The joy of old faith made new,
A woman, with all of a woman's charm—
My own dream girl, that's you!

—Alvan D. Meyer.

DALLAS VISITOR IS HONOREE OF BUNCO PARTY.

One of the prettiest of the many social courtesies that have been extended Miss Elizabeth Hayslock of Dallas, Texas, niece and house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trigg, during her stay in the city, was the delightful morning Bunco party given by Mrs. Trigg at her attractive new home on 803 Pierce street, between the hours of 9:30 and 12 o'clock Wednesday.

The entertaining suite was made beautiful with an arrangement of zebras and marigold, where seven tables of merry players enjoyed the morning's games. Dainty hand-painted tally cards were distributed among the guests on their arrival and the high score prize, a beautiful hand-painted pin tray, was won by Miss Imogene Slade, while a hand-painted perfume bottle, done in an attractive forget-me-not design, was given the honoree.

Later a tempting ice course, consisting of brick ice cream and white cake, was served on plates daintily decorated with marigold to the following: including the honor guest, Mesdames F. M. Ryburn, H. E. Chesnut, G. W. Owens of Dallas, Texas, and Misses Eloise Phillips, Fay Underwood, Alma Lee Joiner of Wichita Falls, Ruth Isabel and Mary Virgin, Agnes Vernon, Irene Beasley, Alvan Meyer, Gean Gustavus, Rachel Dunaway, Mary Dora Oliver, Rella Nugent, Tula Norwood, Mary Hall, Clara Currie, Jessie Dawson, Ruth Stanley, Josephine Curtis, Doris Mirick, Charlotte Cheney, Edith Seewald, Elizabeth Powell, Arnes Vernon, Sadie Claude Curtis, Edna Earl Northern, Oliver Rea Eakle, Utoha Jones, Lera Twitchell of Austin, Texas, Elizabeth Nunn, Imogene Slade and Maurice Arent of Plainview.

SOCIAL NOTES AND PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Dooley of Shreveport are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dooley, 1710 Van Buren street. Miss Willie Waitman of Clidings will arrive in the city Sunday morning to be the week's guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pipkin. Miss Waitman will teach at Pampa High School this winter.

Miss Jimmie Rector left this morning for an overland trip to Long Beach, Cal., where she will be the guest of aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey.

Mrs. H. W. Virgin underwent an operation yesterday morning at St. Anthony's Sanitarium, and is reported this afternoon as doing nicely.

Miss Maurice Arent of Plainview, Texas, is the guest of Miss Imogene Slade.

Mrs. Floyd Cooper left yesterday morning for Dalhart, where she will spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

Misses Neva, Beatrice and Winona Burman of Canyon, Texas, are the guests of Miss Ruby Miller of 1603 Taylor street.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong of Plainview, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ross D. Rogers, has returned home.

NEW SEWING CLUB IS ORGANIZED.

A delightful social gathering held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Dinan, 1595 Jackson street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, resulted in the organization of a new sewing club, which is expected to soon take its place among the most progressive clubs of the city.

Twelve members were present, and numerous matters of interest to the club were discussed. A name has not yet been chosen for this new organization however, but this will be arranged for at the next regular meeting, which will be held on Tuesday, September 13, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Eakle, 1514 Pierce street.

During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the club guest, Miss Mayne Barnard, sister and house guest of Mrs. Leon Lienhard, and the following members: Mesdames John Chesnut, Marvin McCullough, W. W. McIlroy, Leon Lienhard, Guy Faller, Grover Bishop, Clarence Eakle, L. R. Williams, Jim O. Jenkins, Z. G. Fine, R. P. Percell and W. L. Dinan.

WEEKLY SOCIAL AND CLUB CALENDAR.

The members of the Thursday Forty-Two Club will meet with Mrs. M. R. Hone, 1406 Pierce street, Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. G. T. Oliver and daughter, Manie, 1612 Polk street, will be at home to their friends between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

On Thursday afternoon the members of the Atheneum Club will hold their first meeting of the new club year at the home of Mrs. J. W. Veale on 1513 Harrison, beginning at 3 o'clock.

A delightful informal luncheon will be given on Friday at 12:30 o'clock at the Harvey House by the members of the Pan-Hellenic Club, and all fraternal women of the city are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. George Abbott will be hostess to the members of the Recreation Club on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home on 1408 Hayden street.

An expression recital will be given on Friday evening, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church, by Mrs. J. L. Quick, assisted by Miss Ruth Virgin, pianist. The public is cordially invited.

An important business meeting will be held by the Potter County Federation of Women Saturday afternoon, in the parlors of the First Baptist Church at 3 o'clock. This is the first meeting that has been held by this organization for several months, and it is therefore urged that every member be in attendance.

PARTY GIVEN AT THE CRUDGINGTON HOME.

At the conclusion of an enthusiastic membership contest, held by Mrs. John Crudgington's Sunday School class, in which the two sides were known as the Moons and the Stars, the Stars proved to be victorious in the struggle, and were entertained Wednesday afternoon with a delightful party, given by the opposing side at the home of Miss Allene Crudgington, on 910 Tyler street.

Numerous games and contests were enjoyed between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock, and dainty refreshments of orange sherbet and angel food cake were later served to a large number of guests.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB ENJOYS ALL-DAY BRIDGE PARTY.

The members of the Tuesday Bridge Club enjoyed an all-day bridge party Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Veale, on 1513 Harrison street.

Games began at 9:30 o'clock, a delicious dinner was served at 12, and playing continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS EASTERN STAR PICNIC.

A large number of members and relatives of the Eastern Star were present at the delightful picnic held by that order last evening at the City Park.

A delicious picnic supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, and was followed by an enjoyable evening of music and games.

U. S. DESIGNERS HOLD TO STRAIGHT LINES.

(By Marian Hale.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—While extremists, as well as alarmists, are terribly concerned over the "to be or not to be" of the long, full skirt—smart New York designers go merrily on their way creating the graceful straight-lined gown.

A model of exceeding grace and style is the Norman & Katz gown of whisper-soft willow-brocade with its long panel-effect back and front, the panels lined with white silk, semi-detached in the back.

Chased metal buttons and a metal belt and the large sleeves are the only trimmings as the brocade speaks for itself.

The ancient Babylonians used to wear breeches.
